November 11th - Thank You

A big thanks to all that didn't turn up to the Piazza on November 11th allowing the British Legion to have the Square to themselves and also a big thanks to everyone that turned up at Sandy Scooters for the alternative meet even though I understand some of you got caught behind some parades on the way through Sandy.

Regular Rides

November's ride out to the VW / scooter day was well attended, especially given the weather. Top marks to you lads and I'll try to get the photos on the website soon as I get a chance.

By now though, you will have either done the December Ride out or not, it was the Peanut Duck Custom Show on Sunday 2nd December, where I saw some hardy Pilgrims that went by scooter including Mojo, Gaz & Dodge.

As for January, I think we'll hold fire on that one, but if there is one then it'll be emailed to all and on the forums.

The Pilgrims Christmas Do

What a great old night! Great to see so many mates coming far and wide to the new venue this year of Stewartby Social Club, even better that the beer was reasonably priced, entry was free and we got a chance to see Smokey Joe's moves!! Also some great fun with the Pimm's Twin's in attendance as well as Greg getting a surprise from his 3 identical brothers!

Big Rob (of the unwilling pancreas) had a choice of 2 Pilgrims CD's on the night and they were selling well, but if you missed them either chat to him about getting one or both, (fiver each) or he will be leaving some at your local friendly scooter shop soon. One is a Northern Soul CD, the other a Ska type one, Ill get a list on the web of the songs soon.

Northern Soul & A Dollop of Ska

December the 27th, a Thursday, is a night to put in your diary.

Yes, right between Chrimbo and New Year is an opportunity for a night out in the middle of Bedford with some DJ's you'll know, and maybe some you don't. A fiver on the door is a small price to have a break from the in laws eh?

It's at The Pad Nightclub on Lurke Street in Bedford which is just round the corner from The Bankers Draft on the High Street. More details on the Events section of the Pilgrims Forum.

Sandy Scooters Winter BBQ & Open Day

Also, between Christmas and New Year is the Sandy Scooters BBQ / Open Day. Why? Why not? So, why not come along for BBQ's and Bargains on the day with 10% off everything and other Special Offers on the day! Midday until 4 Sunday 30th December, well, it is winter.
