

March 2008

Regular Rides

February saw the Regular Ride go to St. Neot's Market Square and we were lucky enough to have great weather for it too which probably helped to a degree number wise. A count on the Piazza in Bedford came to a total of 50 scooters from clubs such as Strangetown SC, Luton Lambretta Club, the Borderline Allstars, Tin Soldiers and lots of solo scooterists. Brilliant turnout.

March's ride is to Coventry! Yes folks, as the year rolls on, we're going to revisit Coventry at the end of March to see the VMSC show again. Several of us did it last year too and it was a superb run there and back with a couple of short stops at some nice country pubs.

Great Yarmouth National Rally

Easter Bank Holiday is fast approaching and while I know that some have decided not to go, many still are so ask around, see who's going and when to meet up.

Tin Soldiers Easter Egg Run

Great attendance at the egg run organised by local club The Tin Soldiers of Milton Keynes, well done to all! I believe that there are rumours of some piccies in the local press!! Mods eh? Get a camera out and they're everywhere ■

Speaking of Easter Egg Runs....

... this Saturday sees another local run organised by the Peterborough Lambretta Vespa SC. For anyone wishing to ride up, see the Forthcoming Events opposite. Again there should be a great turnout at this one.

The Pilgrims Run to the Races.

Sunday March 23rd is the date and 8.30am is the time. Early I know but if you are up for a decent rideout and a day of watching classic scooters and bikes racing at Mallory Park then be there.

Remember 8.30am kick off at the Piazza in Bedford, up the A5 to Mallory for a great day out!

Sandy Scooters Open Day & BBQ

This Sunday Sandy Scooters is holding it's (now regular) BBQ and Open Day with free tea and coffee and discounts of 10% on most items, 20% on some others and other deals it's sure to prove as popular as past ones. Kickoff is at 11.30am and it'll go on until 5pm!!

Pilgrims League Table for 2008

Remember if you want to join in the craic let Donnie know, the emails at the bottom of the newsletter. At the time of writing there is a new leader with Gaz pipping Donnie at the post thanks to the Tin Soldiers Easter Egg Run last Saturday.
